This hearing will be conducted pursuant to Section 106.25, Florida Statutes, which governs your participation as follows:

If you are the Respondent, you may attend the hearing, and you or your attorney will have 5 minutes to present your case to the Commission. However, some cases (including those in which consent orders or recommendations for no probable cause are being considered) may be decided by an en masse vote and, unless you request to be heard or the Commission requests that your case be considered separately on the day of the hearing, your case will not be individually heard.

If you are the Complainant, you may attend the hearing, but you will not be permitted to address the Commission. In addition, some cases (including those in which consent orders or recommendations for no probable cause are being considered) may be decided by an en masse vote and, unless the Respondent requests to be heard or the Commission requests that the case be considered separately on the day of the hearing, the case will not be individually heard.

Tim Vaccaro

Executive Director
Florida Elections Commission
March 27, 2026

Please refer to the information below for further instructions related to your particular hearing:

If this is a hearing to consider an appeal from an automatic fine, the Filing Officer has imposed a fine on you for your failure to file a campaign treasurer's report on the designated due date and, by filing an appeal, you have asked the Commission to consider either (1) that the report was in fact timely filed; or (2) that there were unusual circumstances that excused the failure to file the report timely. You are required to prove your case. If the Commission finds that the report was filed timely or that there were unusual circumstances that excused the failure, it may waive the fine, in whole or in part. The Commission may reduce a fine after considering the factors in Section 106.265, Florida Statutes. If the Commission finds that the report was not timely filed and there were no unusual circumstances, the fine will be upheld.

If this is a hearing to consider a consent order before a determination of probable cause has been made, the Commission will decide whether to accept or reject the consent order. If the Commission accepts the consent order, the case will be closed and become public. If the Commission rejects the consent order or does not make a decision to accept or deny the consent order, the case will remain confidential, unless confidentiality has been waived.

If this is a hearing to consider a consent order after a determination of probable cause has been made, the Commission will decide whether to accept or reject the consent order. If the Commission accepts the consent order, the case will be closed. If the Commission rejects the consent order or does not make a decision to accept or deny the consent order, the Respondent will be entitled to another hearing to determine if the Respondent committed the violation(s) alleged.

If this is a probable cause hearing, the Commission will decide if there is probable cause to believe that the Respondent committed a violation of Florida's election laws. Respondent should be prepared to explain how the staff in its recommendation incorrectly applied the law to the facts of the case. Respondent may not testify, call others to testify, or introduce any documentary or other evidence at the probable cause hearing. The Commission will only decide whether Respondent should be charged with a violation and, before the Commission determines whether a violation has occurred or a fine should be imposed, Respondent will have an opportunity for another hearing at which evidence may be introduced.

If this is an informal hearing, it will be conducted pursuant Sections 120.569 and 120.57(2), Florida Statutes; Chapter 28 and Commission Rule 2B-1.004, Florida Administrative Code. At the hearing, the Commission will decide whether the Respondent committed the violation(s) charged in the Order of Probable Cause. The Respondent will be permitted to testify. However, the Respondent may not call witnesses to testify.

Respondent may argue why the established facts in the Staff Recommendation do not support the violations charged in the Order of Probable Cause. At Respondent's request, the Commission may determine whether Respondent's actions in the case were willful. The Respondent may also address the appropriateness of the recommended fine. If Respondent claims that his limited resources make him unable to pay the statutory fine, he must provide the Commission with written proof of his financial resources at the hearing. A financial affidavit form is available from the Commission Clerk.

Ms. Clay:

I apologize for the late response. I had been traveling all week on my 4th grade daughter's Spring Break class trip to Washington, D.C. Today is Good Friday and I was dealing with several urgent issues upon my return. I appreciate your willingness to accept additional information. I have attached the Republican Party of Miami-Dade County ("RPOMD") Organizational Meeting Minutes. This is relevant because the issues related to this automatic fine pertain to the RPOMD's previous treasurer.

I am trying to reach her and get an affidavit from her which will explain in detail the circumstances that led to the automatic fine(s) by the previous treasurer. I will try reaching you next week to introduce myself and discuss further.

Blessed Good Friday and Happy Easter with your family.

Best,

Robert

Subject: FEC 25-042: Automatic Fine Hearing

Good morning, Mr. Fernandez,

I hope you are doing well. I wanted to introduce myself as the staff attorney who will be presenting this automatic fine matter to the Commission, which is scheduled in one month on Wednesday, April 22, 2026. The purpose of this email, also, is to bring a deficiency to your attention with an optional remedy.

For automatic fine hearings under section 106.07(8), Florida Statutes, the Commission serves as a neutral body that determines whether the appellant, your client, has shown unusual (or other) circumstances warranting adjustment of the fine. We rely on the evidence that both parties, i.e., the filing officer and appellant, provide to us. We do not advocate for one party over the other, and we do not operate outside of what the parties provide.

We received supporting documentation from the Miami-Dade County Supervisor of Elections as well as your hearing request appealing their automatic fine totaling $9,000.00. However, we have not received a response from your client or supporting documentation as required under Rule 2B-1.005(2) of the Florida Administrative Code. Although the 20-day period has expired to file initial documentation, I will accept the party's first response and documents as a professional courtesy by Friday, April 3, 2026.

If you wish to remedy the current deficiency, please email FEC@myfloridalegal.com or contact our office at 850-922-4539. Feel free to email or contact me directly at 850-404-5612 if you have any other questions.

Thank you,

NOTICE OF LATE FILING – FINE DUE – $9,000.00
Republican Party of Miami-Dade County PTY
24G7 Campaign Treasurer's Report
Due Date: 11/1/2024
Period Covered: 8/16/2024 – 10/31/2024

Dear Mr. Cooper,

The 24G7 Campaign Treasurer's Report filed with our office was submitted on 11/19/2024 (#1338424). Since this report was not filed by the appropriate filing date, a fine is being assessed for each late day pursuant to Florida Statute 106.07(8)(b).

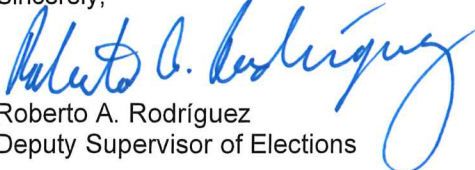

As such, for reports immediately preceding each primary and general election, the fine shall be $500.00 per day for each late day. These fines are not to exceed 25% of the total receipts or expenditures, whichever is greater, for the period covered by the late report. Therefore, since the report was 18 days late, the fine is $9,000.00, which is 18 days at $500 per day. Said fine must be received by our office at 2700 NW 87th Avenue, Miami, FL 33172 within twenty (20) days of your receipt of this notice. The check should be made payable to Miami-Dade County.

Florida Statute 106.07(8)(b) goes on to say that the fine may be appealed or disputed based upon unusual circumstances surrounding the failure to file by the designated due date. A hearing before the Florida Elections Commission may be requested, which shall have the authority to waive the fine in part or whole. Any such request must be submitted in writing and must be received by the Florida Elections Commission within 20 days of your receipt of this notice. To request an appeal, please write to the Florida Elections Commission, 107 West Gaines Street, Collins Building, Suite 224, Tallahassee, FL 32399-1050. Our office must also be notified of the intent to bring this matter before the Commission.

I urge you to promptly resolve this matter. If not, in accordance with Florida Statute 106.07(8)(d), we will be required to notify the Florida Elections Commission of this late filing and failure to pay the imposed fine.

If you have any questions regarding this matter, please contact the Candidate Services Section at 305-499-8410.

Sincerely,

Roberto A. Rodriguez
Deputy Supervisor of Elections
