Please refer to the information below for further instructions related to your particular hearing:

If this is a hearing to consider an appeal from an automatic fine, the Filing Officer has imposed a fine on you for your failure to file a campaign treasurer's report on the designated due date and, by filing an appeal, you have asked the Commission to consider either (1) that the report was in fact timely filed; or (2) that there were unusual circumstances that excused the failure to file the report timely. You are required to prove your case. If the Commission finds that the report was filed timely or that there were unusual circumstances that excused the failure, it may waive the fine, in whole or in part. The Commission may reduce a fine after considering the factors in Section 106.265, Florida Statutes. If the Commission finds that the report was not timely filed and there were no unusual circumstances, the fine will be upheld.

If this is a hearing to consider an appeal of an intent to revoke a registration, of a Political Committee, Electioneering Communications Organization, or a Political Party, the Division of Elections has issued you a notice of intent, citing the reasons for which it intends to cancel your registration. By filing the appeal, you have asked the Commission to recommend that the Division's Notice of Intent be set aside. You are required to explain why you believe your registration should not be cancelled. Based upon the information you present, the Commission will issue a recommended order to the Division, in which it will either recommend that the Notice of Intent be set aside, or that the cancellation be upheld.

Re: Her Bold Move Action – Florida – PAC 83463

Dear Ms. Brown:

We are in receipt of your letter to Her Bold Move Action Florida ("the committee") dated July 9, 2024 regarding the late filing of the weekly report due June 21, 2024, and the corresponding fine.

On the due date in question, the committee's compliance officer had entered all the data for the week into the electronic filing system, but due to a busy election cycle and human error, neglected to actually submit the report. While we recognize there were no unusual circumstances as defined in Rule 2B-1.0055, the committee is humbly requesting leniency and waiving of this fine, given that all previous reports, and subsequent reports, have been filed in a timely manner. The committee takes seriously its obligation to file these reports and has put additional safeguards in place to ensure that all future filings will be made by the due date.

Thank you for your consideration.

Very truly yours,
