NOTICE OF HEARING (AUTOMATIC FINE (AF))

A hearing will be held in this case before the Florida Elections Commission on, June 23, 2025 at 1:00 p.m., or as soon thereafter as the parties can be heard, via Zoom, at the following link:
<https://us06web.zoom.us/j/86504722298?pwd=ysJgh3XhXvJnTepZhKKfbbHZIGk252.1> and entering the Meeting ID: 865 0472 2298 and Passcode: 885875.

Failure to appear in accordance with this notice will constitute a waiver of your right to participate in the hearing. Continuances will be granted only upon a showing of good cause.

This hearing will be conducted pursuant to Section 106.25, Florida Statutes, which governs your participation as follows:

If you are the Respondent, you may attend the hearing, and you or your attorney will have 5 minutes to present your case to the Commission. However, some cases (including those in which consent orders or recommendations for no probable cause are being considered) may be decided by an en masse vote and, unless you request to be heard or the Commission requests that your case be considered separately on the day of the hearing, your case will not be individually heard.

If you are the Complainant, you may attend the hearing, but you will not be permitted to address the Commission. In addition, some cases (including those in which consent orders or recommendations for no probable cause are being considered) may be decided by an en masse vote and, unless the Respondent requests to be heard or the Commission requests that the case be considered separately on the day of the hearing, the case will not be individually heard.

If you are an Appellant, and you have requested a hearing, you may attend the hearing, and you or your attorney will have 5 minutes to present your case to the Commission.

Please be advised that both confidential and public cases are scheduled to be heard by the Florida Elections Commission on this date. As an Appellant, Respondent or Complainant in one case, you will not be permitted to attend the hearings on other confidential cases.

The Commission will electronically record the meeting. Although the Commission's recording is considered the official record of the hearing, the Respondent may provide, at his own expense, a certified court reporter to also record the hearing.

If you require an accommodation due to a disability, contact Donna Ann Malphurs at (850) 922-4539 or by mail at 107 West Gaines Street, The Collins Building, Suite 224, Tallahassee, Florida 32399, at least 5 days before the hearing.

Executive Director
Florida Elections Commission
May 30, 2025

Please refer to the information below for further instructions related to your particular hearing:

If this is a hearing to consider an appeal from an automatic fine, the Filing Officer has imposed a fine on you for your failure to file a campaign treasurer's report on the designated due date and, by filing an appeal, you have asked the Commission to consider either (1) that the report was in fact timely filed; or (2) that there were unusual circumstances that excused the failure to file the report timely. You are required to prove your case. If the Commission finds that the report was filed timely or that there were unusual circumstances that excused the failure, it may waive the fine, in whole or in part. The Commission may reduce a fine after considering the factors in Section 106.265, Florida Statutes. If the Commission finds that the report was not timely filed and there were no unusual circumstances, the fine will be upheld.

If this is a hearing to consider an appeal of an intent to revoke a registration, of a Political Committee, Electioneering Communications Organization, or a Political Party, the Division of Elections has issued you a notice of intent, citing the reasons for which it intends to cancel your registration. By filing the appeal, you have asked the Commission to recommend that the Division's Notice of Intent be set aside. You are required to explain why you believe your registration should not be cancelled. Based upon the information you present, the Commission will issue a recommended order to the Division, in which it will either recommend that the Notice of Intent be set aside, or that the cancellation be upheld.

If the Commission accepts the consent order, the case will be closed. If the Commission rejects the consent order or does not make a decision to accept or deny the consent order, the Respondent will be entitled to another hearing to determine if the Respondent committed the violation(s) alleged.

If this is a probable cause hearing, the Commission will decide if there is probable cause to believe that the Respondent committed a violation of Florida's election laws. Respondent should be prepared to explain how the staff in its recommendation incorrectly applied the law to the facts of the case. Respondent may not testify, call others to testify, or introduce any documentary or other evidence at the probable cause hearing. The Commission will only decide whether Respondent should be charged with a violation and, before the Commission determines whether a violation has occurred or a fine should be imposed, Respondent will have an opportunity for another hearing at which evidence may be introduced.

If this is an informal hearing, it will be conducted pursuant Sections 120.569 and 120.57(2), Florida Statutes; Chapter 28 and Commission Rule 2B-1.004, Florida Administrative Code. At the hearing, the Commission will decide whether the Respondent committed the violation(s) charged in the Order of Probable Cause. The Respondent will be permitted to testify. However, the Respondent may not call witnesses to testify.

Respondent may argue why the established facts in the Staff Recommendation do not support the violations charged in the Order of Probable Cause. At Respondent's request, the Commission may determine whether Respondent's actions in the case were willful. The Respondent may also address the appropriateness of the recommended fine. If Respondent claims that his limited resources make him unable to pay the statutory fine, he must provide the Commission with written proof of his financial resources at the hearing. A financial affidavit form is available from the Commission Clerk.

SUMMARY: Belinda Ford is a candidate for State Representative, District 40 in the 2024 elections. Nicole Inmon is her treasurer.

Belinda Ford is appealing the fine. According to Nicole Inmon, they received notification by mail indicating changes in the filing frequency from monthly to quarterly. Following this change, they did not receive any further communication regarding subsequent changes to the filing schedule. Ms. Inmon states, "It was brought to the attention of myself and the candidate that the filing frequency was modified again in May without any notification being sent to our committee." As such, they respectfully request that these fines be waived "due to the extenuating circumstances surrounding the changes in the filing schedule and the absence of proper notification."

- The 2024 P1 Original Report covers the period from 06/01/24-06/14/24; it was due on 06/21/24.
- The 2024 P1 Queued Transaction Report shows that it was created and filed on 06/25/24.
- Belinda Ford reported receiving 1 contribution, while making 3 expenditures.
- The Division of Elections does not have any notes that pertain to Belinda Ford's 2024 P1 report.

PRIOR CASES: NONE.

To whom it may concern, I Belinda Ford confirming that Nicole Inmon who submitted the initial intent to appeal the fine, was representing me in that request.

RE: Case No.: FEC 24-223; Campaign Treasurer's Report due 06/21/24 (2024 P1)

Dear Ms. Ford:

The Florida Elections Commission received a letter from Nicole Inmon appealing the fine assessed against you for failing to timely file a required report. However, Section 106.07(8)(c), Florida Statutes, provide that only the candidate or chair of a political committee, may appeal a fine assessed by a filing officer for the late filing of a campaign treasurer's report.

Therefore, to preserve your right to appeal the automatic fine, the Commission must receive your written statement confirming that the person who submitted the initial intent to appeal the fine, was representing you in that request. For your convenience, your signed statement can be submitted via email attachment to, FEC@myfloridalegal.com.

If we do not hear from you within 14 days from the date of this letter, we will assume that the person signing the letter is neither your attorney nor your personal representative and that you have waived your right to appeal. The Commission will then enter a Default Final Order, ordering you to pay the fine assessed by your filing officer for failing to timely file your campaign treasurer's report.

I urge your immediate attention to this matter.

Sincerely,

Donna Ann Malphurs

Agency Clerk

Subject: Appeal of Late Filing Fines for candidate Belinda Denise Ford 83818.

To whom it may concern,

I am writing to formally appeal the fines imposed for late filing of campaign finance reports. As the campaign treasurer, I am very well aware that it is my responsibility for ensuring timely and accurate submission of these reports.

In the early months of our campaign, we received a notification by mail indicating a change in the filing frequency from monthly to quarterly for the remainder of the year and into the new year. Following this change, I did not receive any further communication regarding subsequent changes to the filing schedule. With the subsequent understanding that I would receive notification by mail of any changes, I proceeded to calculate and forecast what the reporting dates would be moving forward. However, it was brought to the attention of myself and the candidate, that the filing frequency was modified again in May without any notification being sent to our committee.

As a result of this lack of communication, three reports were filed late, resulting in fines totaling $617.83 ($72.49, $86, and $459.34). I respectfully request that these fines be waived due to the extenuating circumstances surrounding the changes in the filing schedule and the absence of proper notification.

As requested, enclosed are the notification letters we received regarding each fine. We have always strived to comply diligently with all reporting requirements, even as newcomers to this process, and we will continue to do so.

Thank you for your attention to this matter. We appreciate your understanding and consideration of our request. Should you require any additional information or documentation, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Sincerely,

Nicole Inmon

Dear Ms. Ford:

Our records indicate that you have not filed either your campaign treasurer's report or notification that no reportable activity occurred, whichever is applicable. The filing date was June 21, 2024.

The law (s. 106.07(8)(b), Fla. Stat.) requires the filing officer to immediately notify you about the missed filing date and the automatic fines that will be assessed for late filing of a report, if a report was due.

- If reportable activity occurred and you have not filed a report, statutory fines are automatically assessed as follows until you file your report:
 - $50 per day for the first 3 days late
 - $500 per day for each day after the 3rd day late
 - If the required report immediately precedes a primary and general election, the automatic fine is $500 for each late day.

The total fine for the untimely report cannot exceed 25% of the total receipts or expenditures, whichever is greater, for the cover period. Even if you end up filing your report late, we cannot waive the statutory fines. We will notify you of the specific amount of fines owed once you file your report. You have 20 days from the day you receive the notice to pay the fine or to appeal the fine to the Florida Elections Commission.

- If no reportable activity occurred for the report date(s), you are still required to notify us in writing, via the Division's Electronic Filing System, that no reportable activity occurred. No automatic fines are statutorily assessed.

However, in all cases, failure to file and/or untimely filing of a report of reportable activity, or if applicable, a notice that no reportable activity occurred, may constitute an apparent violation of chapter 106, Fla. Stat. If we refer such matter to the Florida Elections Commission, the Commission may subsequently impose a civil penalty for each violation under chapter 106.265(1), Fla. Stat.

If you have any questions, please contact the help desk at (850) 245-6280.

HISTORY NOTES

Belinda Ford - 83818

Unique ID	Date Recorded	Last Edited Date	Orginally Recorded By
80126	10/24/2023 4:49:00 PM		MAHart
10/24/23: Called treasurer back. She was confused on errors I explained that they have been updated on the completion side, but there are some things not reported correctly like the petty cash spent, and the name as the source is the candidates name for things like gas and campaign management. She told me all expenditures were made with campaign card, and I let her know she must change the expenditure to monetary if it was paid with campaign card and she must change the entities where the gas and items were purchased, not the candidates name. Also told her she must separate the 2023 Q3 Exp #3 to where the gas and campaign manager payment are separate expentitures. mah
