If you are the Respondent, you may attend the hearing, and you or your attorney will have 5 minutes to present your case to the Commission. However, some cases (including those in which consent orders or recommendations for no probable cause are being considered) may be decided by an en masse vote and, unless you request to be heard or the Commission requests that your case be considered separately on the day of the hearing, your case will not be individually heard.

Tim Vaccaro

Executive Director
Florida Elections Commission
March 27, 2026

Please refer to the information below for further instructions related to your particular hearing:

If this is a hearing to consider an appeal from an automatic fine, the Filing Officer has imposed a fine on you for your failure to file a campaign treasurer's report on the designated due date and, by filing an appeal, you have asked the Commission to consider either (1) that the report was in fact timely filed; or (2) that there were unusual circumstances that excused the failure to file the report timely. You are required to prove your case. If the Commission finds that the report was filed timely or that there were unusual circumstances that excused the failure, it may waive the fine, in whole or in part. The Commission may reduce a fine after considering the factors in Section 106.265, Florida Statutes. If the Commission finds that the report was not timely filed and there were no unusual circumstances, the fine will be upheld.

If this is a hearing to consider a consent order before a determination of probable cause has been made, the Commission will decide whether to accept or reject the consent order. If the Commission accepts the consent order, the case will be closed and become public. If the Commission rejects the consent order or does not make a decision to accept or deny the consent order, the case will remain confidential, unless confidentiality has been waived.

If this is a hearing to consider a consent order after a determination of probable cause has been made, the Commission will decide whether to accept or reject the consent order. If the Commission accepts the consent order, the case will be closed. If the Commission rejects the consent order or does not make a decision to accept or deny the consent order, the Respondent will be entitled to another hearing to determine if the Respondent committed the violation(s) alleged.

If this is a probable cause hearing, the Commission will decide if there is probable cause to believe that the Respondent committed a violation of Florida's election laws. Respondent should be prepared to explain how the staff in its recommendation incorrectly applied the law to the facts of the case. Respondent may not testify, call others to testify, or introduce any documentary or other evidence at the probable cause hearing. The Commission will only decide whether Respondent should be charged with a violation and, before the Commission determines whether a violation has occurred or a fine should be imposed, Respondent will have an opportunity for another hearing at which evidence may be introduced.

If this is an informal hearing, it will be conducted pursuant Sections 120.569 and 120.57(2), Florida Statutes; Chapter 28 and Commission Rule 2B-1.004, Florida Administrative Code. At the hearing, the Commission will decide whether the Respondent committed the violation(s) charged in the Order of Probable Cause. The Respondent will be permitted to testify. However, the Respondent may not call witnesses to testify.

Respondent may argue why the established facts in the Staff Recommendation do not support the violations charged in the Order of Probable Cause. At Respondent's request, the Commission may determine whether Respondent's actions in the case were willful. The Respondent may also address the appropriateness of the recommended fine. If Respondent claims that his limited resources make him unable to pay the statutory fine, he must provide the Commission with written proof of his financial resources at the hearing. A financial affidavit form is available from the Commission Clerk.

SUMMARY: Physicians for Emergency Care is a political committee (PC) registered with the State of Florida. The PC's chair is Blake Buchanan, its treasurer is Melissa Keahey, and its deputy treasurer is Kim Palm.

The PC is appealing the fine. According to the deputy treasurer, Kim Palm, the committee was not required to file special election reports in prior years. She was under the mistaken impression that the same applied for this year. Ms. Palm did not realize the report was required until after the deadline had passed. She mistakenly included the candidates in the committee's regular quarterly filing while being unaware that they needed to be reported as special election candidates. This contributed to the delay and confusion in ensuring proper compliance. As soon as she became aware of the error, she took immediate steps to correct the filing and submitted the appropriate special election report.

- The 2025 SG2 Original Report covers the period from 05/02/25-06/05/25; it was due on 06/06/25.
- The 2025 SG2 Queued Transaction Report shows that it was created and filed on 06/18/25.<sup>1</sup>
- Physicians for Emergency Care reported receiving zero contributions while making 1 expenditure. The expenditure was also reflected on the 2025 Q2 Report.
- FEC staff was advised, "The committee filed a notice of no activity (waiver) on 06/18/25. A waiver is not a report. On 07/09/25, the committee filed a report showing $1,000.00 of activity. The fine is based on 25% of the activity."
- The Division of Elections does not have any notes that pertain to Physicians for Emergency Care's 2025 SG2 Report.

PRIOR CASES: 23-061 (AF-UC: hurricane); 22-002 (AF-NUC)

Re: PAC 60952 - Appeal for Late Filing of Special Election Report – 2025 SG2

Dear Administration,

I am writing on behalf of our committee, and in my role as Chair, to provide an explanation regarding the late filing of the 2025 SG2 Special Election report. I am also responding on behalf of our Deputy Treasurer, Kim Palm with whom I am in full agreement that she was unaware of the new filing regulations related to special elections.

In previous years, our committee was not required to file reports for special elections, and we mistakenly believed the same applied this year. As a result, the Deputy Treasurer did not realize the special election report was required until after the filing deadline had passed.

Additionally, the candidates were included in our regular quarterly report, under the incorrect assumption that this met the necessary reporting requirements. This misunderstanding contributed to the delay and confusion around the filing.

Once we became aware of the oversight, we acted promptly to submit the appropriate special election report. We take full responsibility for the error and have updated our internal procedures to ensure compliance with all future filing requirements.

We sincerely apologize for the oversight and any inconvenience caused. On behalf of the committee, I respectfully request an appeal to have the late fine waived.

Thank you for your understanding, and please let us know if any further information is needed.

Sincerely,

Blake Buchanan, M.D.

Dear Dr. Buchanan:

Our records indicate that you have not filed either your campaign treasurer's report or notification that no reportable activity occurred, whichever is applicable. The filing date was June 6, 2025.

We mailed, via regular mail, the first notice of the failure to file the above-mentioned report or notification to the address on file with our office on June 11, 2025.

The first notice which we provided to you specifically explained the automatic fine provisions in the law (s. 106.07(8)(b), Fla. Stat.) for failure to file a required report. Such fines are continuing to accrue for a late-filed report. Also, that notice explained that if no reportable activity occurred for the report date(s), you are still required to provide notification in writing that no reportable activity occurred. Our initial notice further indicated that, in all cases, failure to file and/or untimely filing of a report of reportable activity, or if applicable, a notice that no reportable activity occurred, may constitute an apparent violation of chapter 106, Fla. Stat. If we refer such matter to the Florida Elections Commission, the Commission may subsequently impose a civil penalty for each violation under chapter 106.265(1), Fla. Stat.

If you have any questions, please contact the help desk at (850) 245-6280.

Special Election Report
2025 SG2 - State House 3

Dear Dr. Buchanan:

Our records indicate that you have not filed either your campaign treasurer's report or notification that no reportable activity occurred, whichever is applicable. The filing date was June 6, 2025.

The law (s. 106.07(8)(b), Fla. Stat.) requires the filing officer to immediately notify you about the missed filing date and the automatic fines that will be assessed for late filing of a report, if a report was due.

- If reportable activity occurred and you have not filed a report, statutory fines are automatically assessed as follows until you file your report:
  - ⊕ $50 per day for the first 3 days late
  - ⊕ $500 per day for each day after the 3rd day late
  - ⊕ If the required report immediately precedes a primary and general election, the automatic fine is $500 for each late day.

The total fine for the untimely report cannot exceed 25% of the total receipts or expenditures, whichever is greater, for the cover period. Even if you end up filing your report late, we cannot waive the statutory fines. We will notify you of the specific amount of fines owed once you file your report. You have 20 days from the day you receive the notice to pay the fine or to appeal the fine to the Florida Elections Commission.

- If no reportable activity occurred for the report date(s), you are still required to notify us in writing, via the Division's Electronic Filing System, that no reportable activity occurred. No automatic fines are statutorily assessed.

However, in all cases, failure to file and/or untimely filing of a report of reportable activity, or if applicable, a notice that no reportable activity occurred, may constitute an apparent violation of chapter 106, Fla. Stat. If we refer such matter to the Florida Elections Commission, the Commission may subsequently impose a civil penalty for each violation under chapter 106.265(1), Fla. Stat.

If you have any questions, please contact the help desk at (850) 245-6280.

| 4/14/25: I committee member called in regards to the Intent to Cancel Registration. She stated that the committee was going through some structure damage in the office so the committee just received the Intent to Cancel letters. I confirmed that PAC #60551 and #60552 are both still active. I then explained that she would need to send in a new DSDE 6 for both committees appointing a new treasurer. The committee member then explained that it would take a little bit of time for the new DSDE 6's to come in due to having to mail the forms to the chairperson, then the committee could send the division new forms. I told the committee member that I would notate this call and let the Reviewer who is handling this Intent to Cancel, know that you have contacted the Division and is sending in new forms soon. | Received a letter from a representative for this PAC, explaining that the received a fine letter for the report due on October 7, 2022, that was filed late. The letter stated that their records showed the fine having already been paid and cleared from their account on 11/17/22.   |                       |                  |                        |
| I called said Representative, Ms. Kim Palm, and explained to her that the fine letter she received was in reference to the 2022 G3A report that had yet to be paid. I told her that there were two reports due on October 7, 2022, due to the date of the G3 report being pushed back by executive order caused by the hurricane. I let her know that was the reason two letters were sent out on October 10, 2022. She asked if she could request the fine be waived and I directed her to the appeal information on the fine letter.   |                       |                  |                        |

| Ms. Brunner wanted to know the credentials for the new treasurer. I explained that the DSDE 6 they had provided did not have original signatures and was therefore incomplete. She asked if she could withdraw her resignation as treasurer so that they could file their report. I explained that she had already been removed as treasurer based on her letter of resignation. She was upset and believed there were no clear instructions that original signatures were required. I pointed her to page 8 of the PAC handbook. Ultimately, she said she would try to send them overnight delivery, but she was working from home and didn't know if she could get to the office today. She said it maybe Tuesday before we get the new form and didn't feel it was fair to be penalized for Sat & Sun. I advised her of possible fines and explained that they could appeal to the FEC. |                       |                  |                        |

Timely Filing

All reports must be completed and filed through the EFS no later than midnight, Eastern Standard Time, of the due date. Reports not filed by midnight of the due date are late filed and subject to the penalties in Section 106.07(8), Florida Statutes. In the event that the EFS is inoperable on the due date, the report will be accepted as timely filed if filed no later than midnight, Eastern Standard Time, of the first business day the EFS becomes operable. No fine will be levied during the period the EFS was inoperable.

Any political committee failing to file a report on the designated due date is subject to a fine of $50 per day for the first 3 days and, thereafter, $500 per day for each day, not to exceed 25% of the total receipts or expenditures, whichever is greater, for the period covered by the late report. However, for the reports immediately preceding each primary and general election, the fine shall be $500 per day, not to exceed 25% of the total receipts or expenditures, whichever is greater, for the period covered by the late report.

Electronic Receipts

The person submitting the report on the EFS will be issued an electronic receipt indicating and verifying the report was filed. Each campaign treasurer's report filed by means of the EFS is considered to be under oath by the chairperson and campaign treasurer and such persons are subject to the provisions of Section 106.07(5), Florida Statutes.
